Touriga Nacional, Touriga Franca, Tinta Roriz on schist soils. Half the wine aged in French and American oak, the rest in tank. Deep crimson, still quite a purple colour for a three-year-old wine. Spicy and peppery on the nose, a hint of smoky reduction on the nose and a dark purity that reflects its origin. Super-fine tannins, juicy and fresh. More delicate than I expected on the palate, and long rather than rich. (JH)
