

Maria Bonita Alvarinho Regional Minho 2018

Date tasted: 10 October 2019

Reviewer: Julia Harding

Score: 16

Drink: 2019-2020

Fresh and inviting chalky pear fruit on the nose, carried through on the palate, though there is something slightly flattening it at the moment. It is certainly crisp and fresh, with good varietal character, but somehow suppressed on the finish. Juicy and lively and the fine-grained texture adds length. (JH)