Old vines on granite, natural ferment, skin contact and ageing on lees. RS 6.5 g/l, pH 3.19.

Pale lemon. Intense and inviting aroma of ripe citrus, quince, yellow plum and clementine. Really fabulous aroma. Equally delicious on the palate, with all that lovely fresh ripe fruit and plenty of crisp acidity to make this tastes pretty dry.

Tangy, zesty finish. Fine texture with just the right amount of depth and friction from the lees and skin contact. Delicious.
