The 2019 Reserva Andreza is a blend of 50% Touriga Franca, 25% Touriga Nacional and 25% Tinta Roriz (a big increase), all aged for 10 months in a 70/30 mixture of used French oak and stainless steel. It comes in at 14% alcohol. Only about two months in bottle when tasted, this seemed largely ready to drink. The tannins are soft, and the wine is accessible while always being fruit forward. It's tasty and elegant, with just a little distinction. There's nothing profound here, but it is a reasonable value for short to mid-term drinking.
