The 2016 Touriga Nacional / Touriga Franca Andreza is an equal blend. It was one-third aged for 12 months in used French oak, the rest in stainless steel. It comes in at 13.5% alcohol. On the lighter side, this still has some structure and a friendly feel with good freshness. The purity of fruit helps this along and makes it enticing. It's a nice food wine that is drinking pretty well now, but it can easily hold for several years. There were 1,180 six-packs produced.
