The 2014 Touriga Nacional / Touriga Franca "Andreza" is a 50/50 blend, aged in used French oak for 12 months. It comes in at 13.5% alcohol. In sharp contrast to the fresh and expressive fruit presented on the winery's other reds this issue, this has a darker feel at the outset. Eventually, it begins to show that same brightness and fresh, expressive fruit. It should drink well over the next several years.
